

The Society for Menstrual Cycle Research 2017 Conference Call for Papers

Menstrual Health: Research, Representation and Re-Education

Friday and Saturday, June 23-24, 2017
Kennesaw State University
just outside of Atlanta, GA, US

Plenary panels will highlight current research related to four topics:

- Period Politics, Policy, and Activism
- Cycling Across Borders: Translational Conversations
- The Menstrual Experiences of Underserved Individuals
- Menstrual Education: Based on Fact or Fiction?

Abstracts for Additional Presentations Are Now Welcome for Review

Submission Deadline is January 31, 2017

Access details, submission guidelines, and forms at <http://www.menstruationresearch.org/>

Conference Chair: Evelina Sterling – esterlin@kennesaw.edu
Program Chair: Peggy Stubbs – SMCR2017@chatham.edu